Combatting Trafficking in Persons

INTRODUCTION
Human rights are the most fundamental rights that we have, and Booz Allen joins the global community in promoting and protecting human rights and working to stop actions that infringe on these rights.

The purpose of this policy is to prohibit, and establish measures to prevent, activities within our organization and in our supply chain that constitute or promote the trafficking of humans or forced labor.

SUMMARY OF POLICY
Booz Allen’s Combatting Trafficking in Persons policy covers all of the following content in detail:
- Related policies at the firm that employees should read in connection with this policy
- Scope of who the policy applies to
- Sets forth strict prohibitions against human and sex trafficking, child labor, and related activities in the firm’s business operations and supply chain
- Explains actions to take to process work relocation requests as well as documentation required
- Contains access to Booz Allen’s Combatting Trafficking in Persons (CTIP) Corporate Compliance Plan
- Confirms actions that will be taken when violations of the policy have been identified, employee’s duty to report violations of the policy, and the firm’s zero tolerance for retaliation against employees who raise a good faith legal or ethical concern
- Provides points of contact and additional resources
